He then proceeded to put his threat into execution, and pointed the pistol so that the ball could not have gone far from the head of the Fusko boy. Instead of getting frightened and running away Fusko ran toward his assailant and tussled for possession of the weapon, and while doing so the pistol was exploded and the bullet was sent between his feet.

scene of the shooting Johnson was not to be found.

The officers searched for him Saturday night and yesterday until they finally located him.

The boy made a statement in Judge Kimball's court this morning in which he declared that there were no bullets in the pistol.

Judge Kimball fined him $50 for having the weapon and directed the officer to swear out a warrant for the boy for assault with intent to kill. This was done, and Judge Miller committed him to jail in default of $1,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Death of Mr. D. G. Smith.

Mount Vernon M. E. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening, that of Miss Louisa Neitzey and Walter S. West. The bride was attred in tan broadcloth, trimmed in beaver fur, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bunch of La France roses tied with pink ribbon. She was attended by Miss Lizzle Burneston as maid of honor, and Mr. Geo. Holtman acted as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, 212 10th street southwest, which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. West's future home will be 215 9th street southwest.

Mr. D. G. Smith died suddenly of heart failure shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 1515 O street northwest. He had enjoyed a hearty dinner and was about going out to make a call when he was stricken.

going out to make a call when he was stricken. His wife, who was upstairs, heard something fall and returned to the first floor, where she found Mr. Smith unconscious. A gentleman in the house was immediately called and a physician summoned, but nothing could be done to relieve the stricken one, and at about 4:45 p.m. he quietly ceased to breathe.

The game of football to be played on Christmas day at Capitol Park between the team from the Columbia Athletic Club and the All-Washington team promises to rival in interest the great Thanksgiving day game, in which the C. A. C.'s won the championship. The game is to commence promptly at noon and to consist of two halves of thirty minutes each, so that it will not interfere with anybody's Christmas dinner. The C. A. C. will have the same team as during the season except Half Back Harban and Full Back Veazey. All-Washington will be under Sam King's management. Phil King of the Princeton eleven will captain the All-Washington team and play quarter back. Capt. O'Donnell, Dowd and E. Dyer will represent Georgetown University, Lewis the Y. M. C. A., Capt.
